

Dr. Luca Lantero

Dr. Luca Lantero is Associate Professor at the European Law & Governance School (ELGS) and Director of the Institute for Higher Education Law and Governance (IHELG) housed by the European Public Law Organization (EPLO).

He is the General Director of CIMEA, the Italian Information Center on Academic Mobility and Equivalence.

He is one of the main experts at Italian and international level on higher education systems, on bogus diplomas and accreditation mills, TNE institutions and accreditation, the digitalization of processes applied to recognition, particularly with the advent of blockchain and AI.

From 2018 and 2020 he was the Head of the Bologna Follow-Up Group (BFUG) Secretariat of the European Higher Education Area (EHEA).

He is the President of the Lisbon Recognition Convention Committee for his second term, and he is the current Head of the ASEM Education Secretariat.

In 2022, he was elected member of the Bureau of the Ethics, Transparency, and Integrity (ETINED) platform of the Council of Europe.